

Hunter Biden's Laptop (LAPTOP)

Event Resolution Criteria

Overview

Tokens from the Predictions allocation are either burned or released depending on the outcome of pre-defined, time-gated real-world events that are outside the control of the Founders and anyone else associated with LAPTOP. Events are binary outcome milestones with corresponding token allocations that are burned if the event outcome is achieved within the specified timeframe. If an outcome is not achieved within that timeframe, its associated token allocation is released to the Charity allocation instead, where it will be subject to the Predictions lock-up schedule.

Exact resolution criteria for each event can be found within this document. Where Polymarket or Kalshi events already exist for a given event, their resolution criteria will be used in determining the outcome, and such platform's determination of the outcome will be final. For the full rules governing any such event, please refer to the relevant market page on Polymarket or Kalshi. Where events don't exist on Polymarket or Kalshi, Phoenix Veritas Ventures Ltd has determined its own resolution criteria for those events, as set forth below. If the source specified for a given event is unavailable, discontinued, or ambiguous, Phoenix Veritas Ventures Ltd may resolve that event based on other publicly available information or sources it considers reliable, in its sole discretion. Phoenix Veritas Ventures Ltd is ultimately responsible for developing, monitoring, and enforcing discretionary resolution criteria for each event, and, in the event of any ambiguity or dispute regarding such resolution criteria or the determination of an outcome, Phoenix Veritas Ventures Ltd's determination will be final and binding.

This document is governed by the Terms of Service. In the event of any conflict between this document and the Terms of Service, the Terms of Service will control. Phoenix Veritas Ventures Ltd does not verify, endorse or guarantee any information provided by Polymarket, Kalshi or any other third-party data source, does not control or influence how any such platform determines or resolves the outcome of an event, and is not responsible for any error, delay, discontinuation, unavailability or other issue affecting such platform or the information it provides.

The following would not qualify: bills that solely regulate stablecoins without addressing broader crypto market structure; bills that only ban or restrict specific crypto activities without creating a regulatory framework; bills that only address Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs); appropriations bills that merely fund crypto-related activities; bills that only address crypto taxation without market structure provisions; executive orders, regulatory guidance, or agency rules (only Congressional legislation counts); bills that pass only one chamber of Congress; bills that are vetoed and not overridden; state legislation of any kind.
